FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TMG Government awarded program support contract to modernize the United States Army's Distributed Learning Program.

Spotsylvania Virginia, August 9, 2011 – TMG Government Inc., a leader in Public Sector Human Performance Solutions, announced today the award of a one-year subcontract to support the modernization of the Army's Distributed Learning Program. TMG Government will provide program support services to the United States Army Training and Doctrine Command's (TRADOC) Capabilities Manager for Distributed Learning to include annual Strategic Planning, the implementation of a Lean Six Sigma Performance Improvement Program, and the development of the Army's Persistent Learning Capability.

"We are honored to be supporting TADLP and its efforts to develop and execute the Army's Persistent Learning Capability," said Jim Gill, President of TMG Government. "The learning, training, and education of our Army's great Soldiers and Leaders are vital in order to prevail in the current operating environment and will be the decisive edge against future threats to our Nation."
