FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Training Modernization Group Launches TMG Government Inc. to provide world-class expertise and solutions to Public Sector Organizations.

Spotsylvania Virginia, July 26, 2011 – Training Modernization Group Inc. (TMG), www.tmgva.com, a recognized Leader in Human Performance Improvement Systems, announced today, the launch of TMG Government Inc. and industry veteran, Jim Gill, as President of TMG Government. TMG Government will continue TMG's nine year pattern of consistent near-perfect performance by providing its World-Class Expertise, Flawless Execution, Self Governing Program Management, In Process Agility, and an unwavering focus on solving the "Big Picture" Problem to our Nation's Military and Government Agencies.

"I am thrilled to have a seasoned proven business and thought leader like Jim Gill to take the nine years of TMG's past performance in the Human Capital Performance Improvement and Lean Six Sigma Process Improvement and apply it to the public sector. Jim has shown time and time again he knows how to grow a business and match TMG's core competencies to challenges facing our military and our government. He has built a solid team who has already proven their ability to apply commercial solutions to government problems and I know as he builds his business, TMG will learn and improve on its ability to provide solutions to its commercial partners." -Joe Barto, Founder and President of Training Modernization Group.

TMG Government (www.tmggovernment.com) will focus on delivering specialized Strategic Planning, Process Improvement, Training and Education, Leader Development and Professional Consulting solutions to federal, state, and local organizations. TMG Government's mission is to provide the right solutions to organizational challenges through analytical problem solving and connecting people, technology, and innovation to modernize today's paradigm into tomorrow's standard.

"Government organizations face unique challenges in the current operating environment in preparing their workforce to accomplish their vital missions. Organizations looking to do more with less in this challenging environment recognize the importance of managing resources while finding innovative ways to improve overall performance," said Jim Gill, President of TMG Government. "We are in the business of assisting government organizations in delivering results by preparing their workforce for these vital missions that are critical to the efficiency of our Government and the security of our Nation."
